A Romance of the Wheel-House.

(From the San Francisco Californian.)

An incident occurred recently on one of the river steamboats plying between this city and one of the interior towns, which may serve to point a moral if not to adorn a (coat) tail.
The steamboat not being run on the strict temperance plan, as some of the poorest hotels in the country are, the captain was under the necessity of keeping an eye upon the crew, to see that they were not so severely associated with ardent spirits as to be unfit to be entrusted with the management of the boat, and especially to see that "the mar. at the wheel" was in a condition to navigate her. While taking observations near the wheel-house his eye caught sight of a coat-tail fluttering in the breeze on the upper deck behind the wheel-house. There was something unusual in this circumstance, as the wind was blowing violently at the time; it was after dark, and the place was one to which passengers do not often go even in the daytime.

The old salt's suspicions were aroused, but he passed on below, and remained there for some time. Returning to the deck nearly an hour afterwards, he noticed the same ominous coat-tail flapping in the night air from the region of the wheel-house. Turning to a deck-hand, who chanced to be near, he inquired of him whether he had any idea what business the owner of that coat-tail could have there, or "what in thunder he was doing there on that upper deck anyhow?" The man shook his head dubiously, and could not enlighten his captain on these questions. The captain's curiosity was excited; his suspicions were aroused; a grave responsibility rested upon him, for was he not captain of the craft and responsible for its safety? and what dark conspiracy might not be hatching there behind that wheel-house under cover of the darkness?
The eyes of the underwriters were upon him, and he resolved to do his duty in solving the mystery and nipping the conspiracy in the bud if one existed.

Accordingly, constituting himself a committee of one to investigate the matter, he squared away his yards, put down his helm, and rounded the corner of the wheel-house in gallant style, when he confronted the young man with the fluttering coat-tail, and "shiver his timbers!" if there was not a young lady with him. Now, the gallant Captain was prepared to fight, but this was an encounter wholly unexpected. He was taken aback, embarrassed and, figuratively speaking, thrown on his beam-ends. He turned red in the face and choked up, but finally managed to stammer softly, "A pleasant evening." To which very mild and conciliatory suggestion the young man fiercely and ironically retorted,
"It's a lie; I didn't kiss her." The Captain retreated in haste from his investigation to the cabin, where he reported progress. Ever since, the report has been a standing joke on board the steamboat. It has become contagious, and bids fair to supersede "Chuck me in the gutter," and other choice morsels in the vernacular of slang.

THE IMPROVED
WHEELER & WILSON
Again Improved.
FARMERS is our motto, and with this in view, we have so improved the FEEDING DEVICE
as to make it more efficient, while at the same time much less skill and care are required in its management. Neither the thread nor the cloth require holding, and both the thread and the cloth are sewed perfectly. The machine is so constructed that the work is guided with scarce an effort.
Distinctive Feature of this Machine is the ROTARY HOOK
to carry the loop of the upper thread around the spool containing the under, MAKING THE LOCK STITCH ALIKE ON BOTH SIDES OF FABRIC, thereby doing away with the vibratory motion of the shuttle, the tension upon the under thread, and all devices for taking up slack thread, necessary on all other three-thread machines. The public have endorsed these principles by purchasing 50,000 of our Machines.

THE DAILY FREEMAN.

CITY OF KINGSTON, (RONDOUT.)

THURSDAY MORNING, MAY 23, 1872.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

Personal.

Rev. Wm. L. Penny is now stationed at St. Joseph's Church, corner of 6th Avenue and West Washington Place, New York.

Coal Arrival.

On Wednesday sixty-three canal boats laden with seven thousand eight hundred and ninety-five tons of coal reached tide-water.

Powder Mill Explosion.

The double wheel powder mill of Ladin, Rand & Co., at Sangerties, blew up on Tuesday evening last. No one was injured. Loss about $2,000.

Accident.

George, a young son of Austin Thompson of this city, while at play with some other lads on Tuesday afternoon, fell from a fence and fractured one of his arms.

That Fence of Longyear.

Cornelius Burhans, of Kingston, and Joseph Rieley, of Shandaken, report in favor of allowing I. W. Longyear $16,400, in cash, for building 23 miles of fence, for the late R. & O. R. R.

On the Route.

The steamer Hudson, which broke its piston some nights since, has been repaired and is now on the route between this city and Troy, having taken a tow up the river on Wednesday night.

Removal.

The New York, Kingston & Syracuse Railroad Company's office has been removed to the Newland building on Garden street, where rooms have been fitted up for the use of the various employees.

Sociable.

The Ladies of the Church Improvement Society of the M. E. Church, will hold a sociable in the lecture-room on Wednesday evening, May 29th. All are cordially invited to attend. Admission free.

Common Council.

There was an omission in our report of the proceedings of the Common Council, on the 20th. On motion of Alderman Canfield, F. L. Westbrook was authorized to drain the lowlands in the First Ward, and clothed with necessary power to do the work speedily.

Comical.

Our reporter wrote out an item on Tuesday to the effect that a man had caught a striped bass. The typo, in setting it, put two p's in striped, and an o in place of the a in bass, and so the proof-readers eyes were greeted with the astounding intelligence that somebody had caught a "stripped boss."

Arrest.

Thomas Geary, who resides at Kingston Point, and is employed by the New York, Kingston & Syracuse Railroad Company, was on Tuesday evening confined in the lock-up, by order of the Mayor, until Wednesday, when he was taken before the Recorder on complaint of the wife of his boss, whom he had been abusing in the most shameful manner, if his report is true.

The Continental.

O. Hermaere's Continental Saloon is now open for business.

Another Millionaire.

Heirs to immense estates are becoming so numerous herabouts that one can't walk the street without running against half a dozen prospective millionaires. We were going down street the other day thinking about Pat O'Reilly's fortune and what a lucky chap he was, when we ran across Andrew McMullen, who had just received a letter telling him he was one of the heirs to an estate worth over a million dollars in England, and he was looking for a lawyer to prosecute his claims. We congratulated Andy. Now we're going for our share of Anneke Jans' estate, and when we get it, our fortune will knock the spots off any other around here.

Regrets.

We regret to learn of the death, by varioloid, at Middletown, Orange county, of Charles Stephan, Jr., of this city, and formerly a compositor in the FREEMAN establishment. We understand that his father's family was not aware of his illness until Monday last, when his employer wrote to inform them of the fact, and added that he was convalescent. On Tuesday a telegram was received stating he had suddenly grown worse, when his father, accompanied by Dr. Quintel, the family physician, left for Middletown by the Walkkill Valley Railway. During the evening of Tuesday another telegram announcing the death of young Stephan was received. To the sorrowing relatives and friends of the deceased we extend our heartfelt sympathy in their bereavement.

Improvements.

Mr. John Gill is now erecting on the lot next to his handsome residence on Chestnut street, a new dwelling house of cement concrete, with trimmings of dressed stone. The design is very tasteful, and when the building is completed it will be an ornament to that already ornamental part of our city.

Many of the dwelling houses and business places in the western portion of the city are receiving a renovating at the hands of the painters and paper hangers, mechanics of that class being remarkably busy. A Freeman chap interviewed several scores of them on Wednesday in the vain hope he could induce one of them to hang some paper, but they all evinced more of a disposition to hang the chap than the paper. Talk about hard times! Nonsense.

The Name Gone.

The Poughkeepsie Eagle thus speaks of a craft long known and sailed in by many of our river mariners, and cherished in the memory of many a boy now grown to man's estate, as the one ship whose yawl could always be borrowed for a fishing trip. Her old skipper, "Dave" Betts, has for some years slept "the sleep that knows no waking" on the far-off Pacific coast, and now the Kemble is no more: "The sloop Kemble, which has been rebuilt by Peter S. Cramer, during the past winter, was launched from the Whale Dock under the supervision of Mr. C. Murphy, Jr., on Saturday. The sloop belongs to Capt. John Styles, who has named it after his daughter, Martha Ann Styles."

Exchange.

Some of the handsome young ladies of upper Kingston were in Middletown a short time ago, and there proposed that an exchange should be made between the two places; that Kingston should trade some of her multitude of girls for the Middletown boys. A fair exchange is no robbery; but it does not speak well of the gallantry of our upper Kingston gentlemen.

Accidents.

Valentine Casper, a brick-layer residing in the upper part of the city, and who was at work arranging the chimney of the parsonage of the First Reformed Church for the reception of a range on Wednesday forenoon, was struck on the back of the head by some bricks, which became detached above him and fell a distance of ten feet. Dr. W. A. Van Rensselaer, who was called to attend the injured man, who was insensible, could find no assured evidences of fracture of the skull, though the injury is severe.

Gold Specimen.

We were presented on Wednesday by a professional gentleman of this city, with a very interesting specimen of quartz rock containing the size of the rock fragment considered, a large amount of gold in a most fantastic shape, showing that in some previous period the gold had been joined to the rock while the former was in a melted state. The specimen was taken from the Allison Mine in Grass Valley, California, and if we asked for bread and were given a stone of this kind we wouldn't feel bad about it.

Marriage of a Typo.

Wednesday was a day of considerable excitement among the night-hands of THE FREEMAN, as then the long expected wedding of one of their number, Wm. P. Harlow, to Miss Anna Wolven, took place. The event transpired at Shokan, whither the FREEMAN corps was conveyed in grand style in the Jim Fisk carriage, behind a spanking team. "Will" looked his very best on the occasion, and was dressed in faultless style, while the bride was arrayed in a lavender traveling dress. There was a very jolly time over it, and every FREEMAN man seemed to feel as if he had a personal interest in the affair, so they disported their kids and flourished their white hats, kissed the girls tumultuously, and generally acted as if they were "possessed." They pronounce the bride the prettiest they have seen in a long while, and we suspect from their confidential intimations that they would each follow suit if they could match the pattern. After the ceremony, their gift, a silver casket, appropriately engraved, was presented to the couple by Parr Harlow, in a nice little speech, to which "Will" replied as well as his bubbling joy would permit. Other presents were made by other friends, and after a gay time of a few hours the FREEMAN corps came home, each one wishing it had been himself instead of Harlow that had "stepped off."

Tows.

The following vessels left this city on Wednesday: Steamer's Oswego and New York, for New York; Ice barges Windfall, Colgate; schooner Ganges; brig Nast; boats Atlantic, Cornelius, Mary Lewis, F. H. Stephens, Teresa, S. Morrill, Mary, Minnie Rippallier, 1711, 205, Harvost; barge H. S. Van Santford; boat 1281 to Stony Point.

Steamer Pittston to Newburgh: Boats Cornelia, Rena, Rachel Dupuy, eight Pa. coal boats; 783 to Cozzens, 1367 to Wappinger's Falls; P. B. Levy to New Hamburg.

Steamer Herald to Albany: Boats Blooming Youth, Nonpareil, Ingersoll, Lenora, D. M. Hazen, Minervy, Francis, R. Dunla, Bishop, A. Colling, 1209, Billy Squires, A. Norton; barge Brooklyn to Catskill.

Union Sunday School Entertainment.

The entertainment given by the Union Sunday School at Ponckhookie, under the management of Sup't D. B. Abbey, was a very pleasing affair, and gratified a large audience. It consisted of glees, tableaux, charades, singing by school and individuals, and reading by Miss Burt. The latter was very fine, exhibiting taste and excellent elocutionary talent. Willis Gregory opened the exercises with an amusing little speech, well spoken, for Willis is always tip-top on the stage. "Uraa Major," was a dialogue, in which Master Ougheltree acted the bear to perfection, but got good-natured toward the last. Miss E. M. Wood sang a solo, with a good voice. "Country Cousins" followed, a very amusing and excellently acted tableau. "The Seasons," "Search for Happiness," and "May Party" were all good, the singing in the former and latter being fine, and the "Search" a grand idea, well rendered and viewed with much interest. The "Temperance Conversation" was a cute performance. Mr. Jolley adopting the happy device of putting some of his class among the audience, which gave the appearance of a stirring, impromptu temperance meeting. The boys all spoke up loudly and clearly, and with adroit. Mrs. Osborn distinguished herself in several quartettes. Mrs. Jolly's fine alto, with Mrs. Munson and the Tripps, giving good music. Master John Gregory delivered "A Leap for Life" in a stirring style and with force. He will develop into a declaimer of extra merit. "Independence Bell" also excited interest, and Wm. Rodie gave it full effect. The young lady and gentleman, as well as the audience, seemed to enjoy "Love in the Kitchen." The Pocahontas tableau was made very effective with red light, and the splendid Indian dresses of Turk's Troupe. Mr. Osborn looked a noble Indian, and Miss Van Bramer was Pocahontas in a life-like style. This scene specially pleased the spectators, and it was repeated. But the "Farmers' Glee" perfectly delighted them. This was acted to nature, and was very amusing. It was called for again and again, and greeted with uproarious applause. There was good acting in this piece. Master Robbie Tompkins closed the performance with a cunning little speech, and the audience departed for home highly pleased with an entertainment got up with taste and executed with skill.

Walkkill Valley R. R.

At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Walkkill Valley Railroad, held at Gardiner on the 22d, Tuesday, the following named gentlemen were elected Directors for the ensuing year: F. S. McKinstry, Robert H. Burdell, A. S. Murray, S. M. Capron, John O. Schofield, Ed. Bruyn, Dr. S. Schoonmaker, Jacob Lefever, James E. Ostrander, Reuben Bernard, Wm. F. Romer, C. F. Young and Thomas Cornell.

The Directors will meet on Saturday, at Rosendale, to elect officers, &c., for the coming year.

Warnings Notes.

The Ellenville people have been constructing a new wall, over which they crow considerably, and believe it to be the finest in the country. It will hold about 800 people, and is built in form almost square, without dressing rooms or private staircase. The view from the top of the building is a very fine one, as our reporter can speak from experience. The building will also contain a new Masonic Hall, which will no doubt be most handsomely fitted up, and will be able to compete with that of the City of Kingston. Ellenville is a handsome village, and one can not help but admire her; her fine shade trees and sidewalk walks, her airy, elegant buildings, her mountain scenery, and good roads, and above all her cleanliness, make it by far the handsomest place in Ulster County. Its inhabitants may well be proud of their village. They sprinkle the streets in rather a novel manner, by putting a hose at intervals on the pipe leading from the water reservoir, and thus squirting the water over the street. Every building thus has a sprinkler of its own, a sure remedy against the dust, as well as against fire. It is also a splendid scare-crow to frighten horses, and we advise Ellenvillians to lower their hose when they see a stranger come along, as all horses will not care to have a jet of water thrown over them.

The law is being enforced in that part of the county in regard to shooting game and carrying fire-arms on Sunday, though in one case the jury made rather a strange decision for intelligent men. Charles Post, son of S. A. Law Post, was arrested for shooting robins. A jury was called, and a clear case made out against the prisoner, who made no defence except that he had killed them for sick people. By the way the sick people must have had voracious appetites to eat all the robins this young man shot. The statute, however, makes no exception in cases of this kind, but the jury brought in their verdict of "not guilty!" Talk about intelligent juries! It certainly astonished the game constables not a little. Near Wawarsing Corners several young men went hunting one Sunday, and were arrested and fined for violating the Sunday law, and it actually frightened one of them, by name Stoff, so he died a day after he paid the fine. Many thanks are due the game constable of that town for doing his duty, in regard to the game laws, and the respectable people should uphold him, for it is much needed there.

The fires have made sad havoc in the woods, and have destroyed many thousands of dollars worth of timber and bark. On Saturday the fires ran down close to Wawarsing Corners, and swept over large tracts of the finest timber land in the county. On Saturday night the air was filled with smoke, great clouds floated down the valley, while on nearly every side could be seen the red light of the fires that were being carried by a brisk wind over hundreds of acres of woodland. Saturday night the people went to bed tired and disheartened; they had fought the flames all day, but with little success; on Sunday morning the rain came, and a more welcome gift certainly was never made. Everybody and everything showed their gratitude, men, beasts, trees and meadows.

The old McDonald homestead was sold a few days ago, and bought by Abram Jackson, and John his brother, for $4,000. The property is certainly a cheap purchase at that price, as it contains a valuable wood lot, and nearly 100 acres of good farming land. Success to the boys.

In Kerhonkson, houses are springing up rapidly, and the village has extended more than half a mile across the creek in the past two years. A new parsonage for the M. E. Church is in course of erection.

Jerry Green is still alive, and making himself happy by a fresh law-suit every week or so. He is now engaged in fighting a claim to an old road that runs along the canals. His success, however, is certainly not encouraging to beginners. Peter Decker is overhauling and repairing his store. The Whitakers are still at their old business, and making it a success. Allen, the late representative, has returned home and quietly settled down to business. Our reporter tried to interview him on the Grant and Greeley question, but found him non-committal. Allen is a standing refutation of the old saw about a prophet not having honor in his own country.

We must not leave Kerhonkson without calling on Mr. Samuel Wilkinson, who is known far and near, and has found friends wherever he is known. His merchant tailoring establishment is doing a successful business, while at his residence one finds that genial, hospitable welcome, that causes the visitor a pang of regret when he says his good-bye. The Schoonmaker hotel at this place is kept in splendid order, and is of great credit to the place, as well as a benefit to travelers who wish to stop over night in that section of the country.

Everything is in a good healthy condition, and notwithstanding the late drouth the meadows are looking splendidly, and the crops give fair promise of a good yield during the season.

Rosendale.

Rosendale is going wild over billiard playing. Each hotel has bought a table, and now the strife is hot by the amateurs to obtain possession of them. Abram's table has the advantage, as he has a set of poolballs, while the other house can only boast of a set of ordinary billiard balls.

Only Fit for the Scaffold.

The Kinderhook Advertiser says two very valuable dogs owned by Gen. M. H. Chrysler—one a Spanish pointer and the other a St. Bernard—were poisoned by some scapegrace on Monday night. The object of the outrage is supposed to be to leave the coast clear for a burglary on some subsequent night. On the following night a fine dog belonging to Mr. E. Thomas met the same fate, probably at the same hands. Gen. Chrysler offers a reward of $25 for the conviction of the rascal, and it will unquestionably be for his interest to keep away from the vicinity of the General's grounds for some time to come.—Hudson Register.

A Fool and his Money Parted.

Jared Duplicit arrived in this city this morning from Rondout and met a gentleman appearing man dressed in blue and wearing a gray beard. This stranger inquired as to Jared's destination, and learned that he was about to proceed to Vermont, where he has a brother. At the stranger's solicitation he took a walk and proceeded with him down Broadway to Third street, and up Third street to Harmony Hall, where the stranger proceeded up stairs to sell some gold and pay a bill. He returned soon afterward with the information that the people up stairs would not allow him full value for the gold. Jared volunteered to lend him $17, all he had, if that was enough. Of course it was just right, and the stranger taking the money proceeded up the Third street stairs and down the one leading to River street. It took Jared half an hour to comprehend the fact that he had been victimized, and then the knowledge came too late to do him good.—Troy Times.

Shad.

The fisherman at Tivoli catch on the average 4,000 shad and 10,000 herrings daily. There is a man up there who can clean herring faster than any other man in the United States of America. He only makes three cuts on a single herring, and he does that in about one second. It will make you hold your breath to watch him. Shouldn't wonder if he could clean two thousand herrings an hour all day long.

A Great Improvement.

An improvement in the manufacture of pig-iron, recently adopted at Hudson, N. Y., is said to have increased the monthly production of the furnaces by about twenty-five per cent., reducing the proportion of coal required from thirty-five hundred weight to twenty-eight hundred weight for each ton of iron manufactured. This change is effected by a kind of hood placed on the furnace and bolted fast to the funnel-head plate, which prevents the blast from passing out through the top of the furnace, and compels it to find exit through side flues, nine feet below the funnel-head. It results that the coal used in reducing the ore does not become cemented together at the top of the furnace, as hitherto.

Nord Swindle.

A man calling himself Samuel Clarkson has swindled the male and female Catholic schools of Troy in the most outrageous manner. Visiting the Sisters of St. Mary's school with a boy and a girl, he represented that they were his children, and that their mother was dead; that she was a Catholic, and desired the children educated in the Catholic faith. He seemed surprised to learn that the school was a free one, but when told that music was extra he brightened up and desired the little girl to be well cared for in her musical studies. He gave a worthless check for $18 for music and books, receiving $5 change, and promising to send the girl next, proceeded to the Sisters of St. Joseph's school where by the same ingenious plan, he received $5 cash in change for a worthless check of $25. It is presumed that he swindled the Brothers' school out of a small amount, using in that case his boy as a decoy. He has fled towa, but the detectives are on his track.

WM. HUTTON,

PHOTOGRAPHIC CARD.

As making pictures of young children has become a very important branch of the business, a few hints on the subject will not be amiss as a guide to those interested.

Mothers who wish to have babies appear in white should dress them in light blue, pink or salmon; if they are to be dressed in blue, or colors mixed with blue, are photographically speaking white, accordingly as the blue more or less predominates.

As children are often troublesome and restless and hard to get a picture of, and as I do not wish to let poor work leave my gallery, or be bothered with impossibilities over which I have no control, I kindly request mothers to bear in mind that babies should be brought to the gallery between ten and two o'clock, the nearer ten the better. The reasons for this are obvious, to wit:

FIRST:—The child is not so restless, the mother is in better humor in the forenoon, the artist is pretty likely to have had his breakfast, (we seldom ever get dinner) and is not so impatient, hence baby is more likely to get a good picture.

SECOND:—A photographer wishes to make money, or at least a living, as well as other people, and don't like to bother with babies in the gallery full of ladies and gentlemen, who are waiting for their turns, and see no end to the baby-rattle and cry.

THIRD:—The light is not so powerful in the afternoon as in the morning, the active power of the sun's rays are stronger and more active from sunrise to noon, than from noon to sundown. It would be well for adults to bear this in mind who want sitting for themselves.

He has also new buggies, two-seated park phaetons, first-class horse, four-in-hand turn-outs, and careful drivers, to be let on reasonable terms.

OUR TIME

As given in a New York Journal: About a year ago, while investigating some intricate question in connection with high-class time-keepers, we were accorded the privilege, thro' the courtesy of Mr. John Gowans, a member of the firm of Blunt & Co., of taking to pieces and personally inspecting a number of the same instruments that are now offered for sale, and were also shown their rates, and we now gladly testify that they are of a high order of excellence.

The astronomical clocks have the Graham escapement. The clock showing New York time is a clock of fine English manufacture, jeweled in the palette and four pivot holes, and all the pivots have end bearings. The pinnions have 18 leaves, and, like all high-class English work, are of the finest quality, and the pinnions are faultless. The pendulum is a mercurial one. The pendulum spring is double, having two springs set some distance apart. This spring was made and attached to the clock by Mr. Gowans some years ago, and all the adjustments are as near as possible perfect. This clock has always run with little variation from its rate, and from it many of the keepers of the public and private clocks in the city take their time, and, consequently, for many years, it has played an important part in regulating the city time, and is universally acknowledged to be a first-class running clock. The case is mahogany, of the plain square pattern with a projecting base, and a round head.—Editor.

The above is for sale. Will make any one a good kitchen clock. Price $575.00 [No discount.]

We have all necessary tools and machinery to carry on successfully the manufacture of Jewellery—a branch of the business never before carried on in this place. Mr. C. is a practical Watchmaker and Manufacturer of Jewellery, having also had large experience (six years) in making Watch Cases of Gold and Silver, in New York city.

We will make to order any article of Jewellery of any desired style, and use gold or silver furnished us by our customers, who are desirous of keeping the same as keepsakes. We do engraving in colors on Gold or Silver—using Hard Enamel. We set Diamonds and other precious stones in any style. We make plain, chased or engraved Solid Gold Rings of fine Gold, or of any quality, at a very moderate price. We melt, roll, draw and work Gold and Silver, into any form on the premises. We cut stencil plates for marking clothing.

FINE WATCHES REPAIRED AND MADE TO KEEP TIME AS NEAR AS POSSIBLE.

We refine gold and silver. We repair any kind of silver or plated ware in the best manner. We do any kind of repair to watch cases. We make case springs to fit any watch, and warrant them not to break. WE WILL MAKE ANY PART OF A WATCH—any wheel, pinion or jewels of Sapphire, Ruby, Aqua Marine, Chrysolite or Garnet; any plate or bridge, any screw or spring, including a hardened and tempered hair spring. We insert new pivots in the best possible manner, or can make an entire watch in our store, without any outside help. We adjust fine watches to heat, cold, and to different positions, and carefully isochronize the hair spring, and guarantee them not to vary more than a few seconds in a month, and will keep in stock watches of our own adjusting.

WE MAKE SOLID GOLD JEWELRY.

We here desire to express our thanks for the increasing patronage we are receiving. By dealing as we would be dealt by we hope to merit its continuance.

183,600 Machines per annum.

Many new machine companies have had their rise and fall—their machines once popular, now scarcely known—others have made radical changes in their machinery, while the Howe Machine Company have adhered to the opinion of "Elias Howe, Master of Mechanism." The Howe Machine is mechanically correct, does not "change," built addition after addition to their factory, and to-day cannot supply the demand, although turning out six hundred machines a day—just as machine a century ago.

THE ELIAS HOWE, JR., Sewing Machine MANUFACTURED BY THE Howe Machine Co. FOR FAMILIES AND MANUFACTURERS.

THE GREAT PRIZE: EXPOSITION UNIVERSALE, PARIS, 1867. Awarded over sixty-two competitors.

The Highest Premium,

THE ONLY CROSS OF THE LEGION OF HONOR AND GOLD MEDAL,

Given to American Sewing Machines, per Imperial Decree, published in the "Moniteur Universel" (Official Journal of the French Empire), Tuesday, 20 July, 1867, in these words:

(Fabricant de Machines à coudre exposant. Manufacture of Sewing Machines, Exhibitor.)

The Howe Sewing Machine.

Are celebrated and known for doing the best work, using a straight and much smaller needle for the same thread than any other machine. They are adapted to any and all kinds of family sewing and manufacturing of every description, from fine lace to patent leather, making a beautiful and perfect Look Stich, alike on both sides of the article sewed, and will neither rip nor ravel, and use less thread.

Every machine is as near perfection as the best machinery in the world can make it. It is the oldest machine and has more improvements, and a more perfect than any other machine, the parts being exactly alike. If any of the parts need to be replaced, the operator can replace it, and it will outlast and outwear any machine made. They are remarkably simple and easily learned, sure in their operation, and almost impossible to break or get them out of order. They use any thread directly from the spool. The needle has a perpendicular motion, (absolutely necessary for heavy work), runs easily, a fast sewer, and almost noiseless. They do not soil the dress of the operator, and do not have to be taken apart to oil and clean. The New Improved Family Machine cannot be surpassed. Manufacture of Sewing Machines, Exhibitor.

we CHALLENGE THE WORLD to produce a better machine on points of merit. A Hemmer, Feller, Gatherer, Header, Quilter, Tucking Guide, and all the other necessary tools go with each machine, free of charge.

Beware of spurious and bogus Howes. The undersigned is the only authorized Agent for the Genuine Howe Machine.
